In Conversation with Tom Wilson

Wednesday, September 25 – 12 p.m. to 1 p.m.

St. Joseph's Healthcare Hamilton West 5th Campus Auditorium

Join healthcare workers from across St. Joseph's Health System for a conversation with Tom Wilson – Canadian musician, author and visual artist - who will share the story of discovering the truths about his biological family and Indigenous heritage. This free event is open to all St. Joe's healthcare workers (staff, physicians, learners, and volunteers). No registration is required. The event will also include an announcement, in partnership with St. Joseph's Healthcare Foundation, to support St. Joe's to actions towards Truth and Reconciliation. All in-person attendees will receive a commemorative hand-made pin by a local Indigenous-owned business.
